

satelite radio is a paid service and provides quality and variety that are not available elsewhere.i think it is also import because sometimes you are out of a radio station servive area and there are no services. with xm satelite you are alway able to get valuble traffic and weather and other news. its sad that other business's try to surpress new business's buy using there finance's and there polital pull rather than good old fashion competetion.